

HOW CAN I EVER FORGET THE BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS IN AFRICA? THE GROUNDS WERE COVERED WITH DARK GREEN
GRASS THROUGH WHICH STRETCHED A STRAIGHT
WHITE STONE PATH. ON BOTH SIDES OF THE PATH WERE PLANTED WHAT I BELIEVED TO BE POINSETTIAS. NOW THE FLOWERS WERE
SURROUNDED BY PINKISH
LEAVES INSTEAD OF BRIGHT
RED ONES AS THEY SHOULD
